

Please leave the Indiana Telephone Privacy law alone. It has been working very well. I and my family are not interested in junk phone calls all night.